Access from Naha Airport

ɾ 70 minutes drive from Naha Airport via expressway.
ɾ Airport → Tomigusuku Nakachi I.C. → Okinawa Expressway → Okinawa-Kita I.C. → Ordinary Road → Kaishu Road → Hamahiga Ohashi bridge → Hotel Hamahigashima Resort

HOTEL HAMAHIGASHIMA RESORT
Tel. +81-98-977-8088

AMAMICHU JINJYA
A small island called Amanichi is located on the east side of Hamahigajima. The goddess Amamikyô and the god Shinerikyô, regarded as the pioneering god of Ryukyu, had lived in the cave. There is a stalactite shadow stone in the cave, and it is worshiped as a spiritual stone blessing people with children.

Takaesu Salt Factory
Making salt by using the old-fashioned methods.

Recommended spot for photo.

About Hamahiga Island
- The circumference: 4.7km
- The area: 2.09㎢
- The population: 528 [as of January 31, 2014]

About Kaichu Road
- The bridge has a span of 4.7km.
- Connecting the Katsuren Peninsula to Henza Island, the longest marine road in East Asia.
- Completed on April 22, 1972.

About Hamahiga Ohashi Bridge
- The bridge has a span of 1.43km.
- Connecting Hamahiga Island and Henza Island.

Murukubayu
Walking down the private stairway from the hotel leads you to the Muruku beach. Muruku means everyone is coming in local dialect. The beach is still surrounded by nature because Hamahigajima once was completed isolated island until the Hamahiga bridge was built in 1997. Many marine activities are available at the beach. Two desert islands, Ukibarujima and Minamiukibarujima, can be seen off the coast.

About Hamahiga Ohashi Bridge
- The bridge has a span of 4.7km.
- Connecting the Katsuren Peninsula to Henza Island, the longest marine road in East Asia.
- Completed on April 22, 1972.

About Hamahiga Ohashi Bridge
- The bridge has a span of 1.43km.
- Connecting Hamahiga Island and Henza Island.

Silanchu Chaya
It’s located on the south end of Higa village. They say the goddess Amamikyô and the god Shinerikyô, regarded as the pioneering god of Ryukyu, had lived in the cave. There is a stalactite shadow stone in the cave, and it is worshiped as a spiritual stone blessing people with children.